Giving to the Orchestre symphonique de Montréal means helping it sustain its mission of presenting orchestral music, maintaining its high level of excellence and developing its projects for the rising generation and for musical education.

Your gift truly makes a difference.

THANK YOU!

Kent Nagano
Musical Director

« Classical music is an art that must be accessible to everyone. The educational activities intended for children are a concrete example of the Orchestra's support for the new generation, and I'm proud to encourage that initiative. »

- RAYMOND BEAUBIEN,
FRIEND OF THE OSM SINCE 2006

For the 2017-2018 season, help us reach our goal of $600,000 by supporting:

OSM Youth Concerts and Children's Corner

Your donation will make it possible for entire families to enjoy classical works by helping us present:

- 11 Youth Concerts and 3 Children's Corner concerts per season, which benefit over 22,000 young people from primary and secondary schools
- nearly 250 introduction-to-classical-music sessions in primary schools
- for these activities, ticket prices for children are reduced and accessible

OSM Manulife Competition and educational projects

Your donation will go towards supporting:

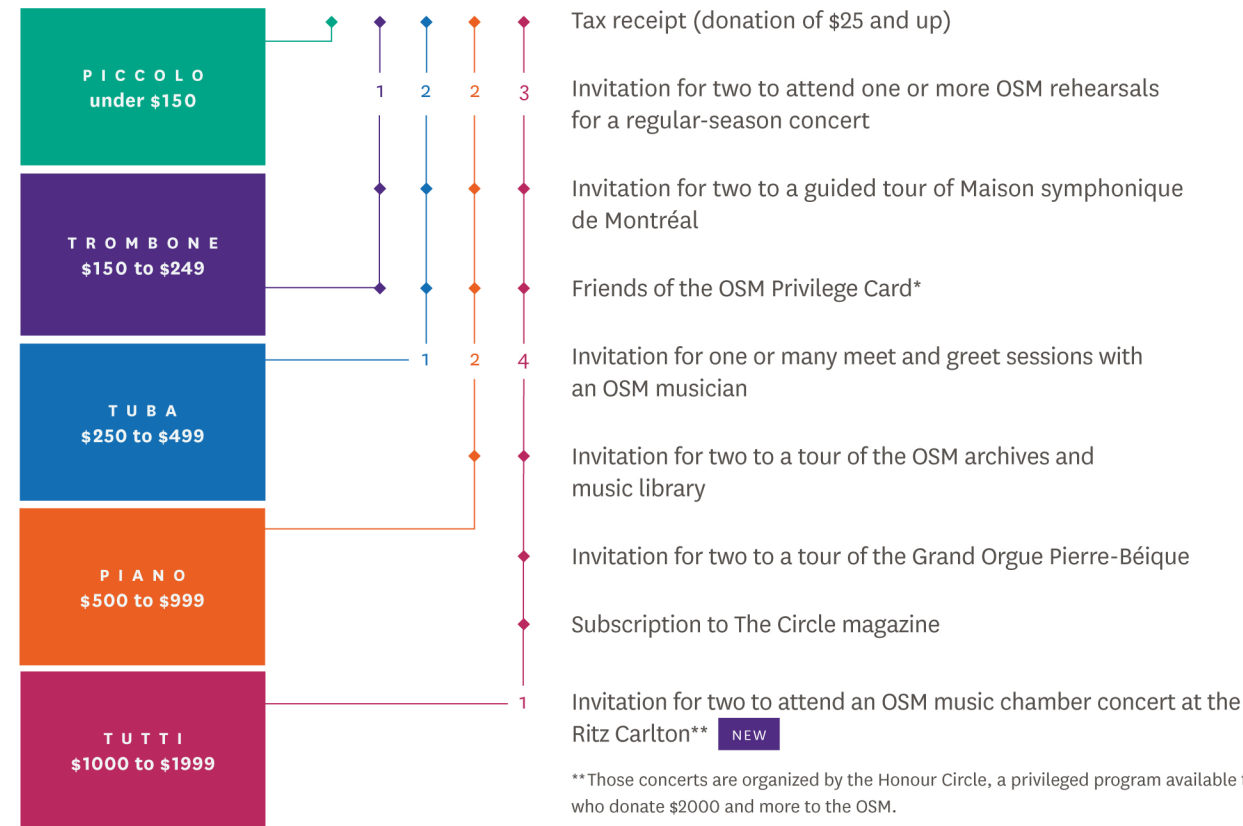

- organization of the 78th edition of the OSM Manulife Competition, which will be taking place from November 21 to 25, 2017, at Maison symphonique de Montréal. This year, young Canadian musicians will be judged in the disciplines of Woodwinds, Brass and Voice
- The development of stimulating and innovative projects aimed at expanding the participation of young people in concerts now and in the future

Classical music for all

Your donation makes possible:

- maintaining affordable admission prices
- the OSM Classical Spree
- free concerts in the parks
- the webcasting of certain concerts

YOUR PRIVILEGES

Those concerts are organized by the Honour Circle, a privileged program available to donors who donate $2000 and more to the OSM.

THE FRIENDS OF THE OSM PRIVILEGE CARD GIVES YOU A 10% DISCOUNT¹ AT OUR PARTNERS!
